ORDER ON MOTION SEEKING CLARIFICATION

[Re Docket Nos. 4 and 5 (Action No. C-10-00019 RMW)]

Defendant Edward Harvey seeks clarification as to whether his motion under 28 U.S.C. § 2255 which was docketed under the number C-10-00019 RMW on February 7, 2011 has received a final ruling. It has. Harvey's confusion undoubtedly results from the fact that the clerk's office gave his § 2255 motion a separate case number from his criminal case number but docketed most of the events pertaining to the § 2255 motion on the criminal case docket. The confusion may have also have resulted from a difficulty in determining how to classify the various papers filed by Harvey. Nevertheless, the court's orders themselves (docket numbers 126 and 130 in the criminal case CR-05-00373) are captioned with the C-10-00019 number.

The chronology, therefore, is as follows:

January 25, 2011: Harvey's § 2255 motion is denied.

1 February 7, 2011: Harvey files notice of appeal

2 February 11, 2001: Harvey's request to add additional citations to his motion is granted.

3 Court reaffirms denial of § 2255 motion. Court denies certificate of appealability.

4 The clerk can close C-10-00019 (criminal file CR-05-00373 has previously been closed).

5 To pursue an appeal, Harvey must get the Court of Appeals to issue a certificate of appealability.
